WASHINGTON, May 24.—THE TREATY.—The Treaty was taken up in Executive session at 12 o'clock, and was discussed for about an hour, when a vote was taken on the resolution to advise the ratification of the treaty, and it was carried by a vote of 50 to 12, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Anthony, Boreman, Brownlow, Buckalew, Cameron, Carpenter, Chandler, Clayton, Conkling, Conover, Cragin, Creswell, Dennis, Ferry of Michigan, Flanagan, Frelinghuysen, Gilbert, Goldthwaite, Gordon, Hamlin, Harlan, Howe, Kellogg, Kelly, Logan, McCreery, Morrill of Maine, Morrill of Vermont, Morton, Nye, Osborn, Patterson of New Hampshire, Pease, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Robertson, Sawyer, Schurz, Scott, Sherman, Spencer, Stewart, Sumner, Thayer, Tipton, Trumbull, Vickers, Warner, Wilson, Windom, and Wright—50.

NAYS—Messrs. Bayard, Casserly, Davis, Ferry of Connecticut, Hamilton of Maryland, Hamilton of Texas, Johnston, Merrimon, Norwood, Saulsbury, Stockton, and Vickers—12.

The Senate then went into executive session, and at 4:30 P.M. adjourned.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT.

The Republican says: "Vice-President Colfax is still confined to his room, and his physicians still regard his condition as critical. He has had a severe attack of pneumonia, and is very weak. He is not able to sit up, and his physicians will not allow him to see any one. His friends are very anxious about him, and will be relieved when he is pronounced out of danger."

THE PRESIDENT.

The President left Washington this morning for Long Branch, where he will remain over Sunday. He will return to the city on Monday.

THE CABINET.

The Cabinet meeting to-day was attended by all the members except Mr. Boutwell, who is still confined to his house by illness.

THE SENATE.

The Senate met at 10 A.M. and was called to order by the President pro tem. Prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Sunderland, of Washington.

Mr. CONKLING presented the petition of Mrs. Mary Lincoln, praying for the payment of a pension to her as the widow of the late President Lincoln.

Mr. CONKLING introduced a bill to provide for the payment of a pension to Mrs. Mary Lincoln, widow of the late President Lincoln. Referred to the Committee on Pensions

WHITE STOCKINGS VS. THIRD AVENUE JUNIORS.

The first contest of the Chicago club's youthful namesakes with a picked nine from the Third Avenue Baseball Association, for the championship of the city, took place yesterday afternoon on the Polo grounds, in the presence of a very large number of spectators.

THE CONTESTANTS.

In order to give the latter an opportunity of seeing the White Stockings in action, the Third Avenue nine was composed of the strongest players in the association, and included Pinkham, Nicoll, Hall, Hill, Hall, Hill, Hall, Hill
